

“If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his own language, that goes to his heart.” (Nelson Mandela)

Portuguese Language and Brazilian Studies Program, SPRING 2016

These courses are taught in Portuguese:

PORT 201 - Intensive Beginning Portuguese (4 credits) – This is the very first semester of Portuguese for those who are new to the language, including students who are fluent in Spanish. Knowledge of Spanish, Italian, or French helps but does not replace this class.

Section C (CRN 62071) 11:00 - 11:50 AM MWF Instructor: TBA
Section D (CRN 62072) 01:00 - 01:50 PM MWF Instructor: TBA
Section E (CRN 62073) 04:00 - 04:50 PM MWF Instructor: TBA

PORT 202 – Intermediate Portuguese (Prerequisite PORT 201) - This is the second semester of PORT. Students can enroll in this course after successfully finishing PORT 201 OR after taking a placement test.

Section D (CRN 62074) 11:00 - 11:50 AM MWF Instructor: TBA
Section X (CRN 62075) 12:00 - 12:50 PM MWF Instructor: TBA

PORT 200 – Advanced Grammar (Prerequisite PORT 202) – This is the third semester of PORT. Students can enroll in this course after successfully finishing PORT 202 OR after taking a placement test.

Section G (CRN 50056) 11:00 AM - 12:15 PM TR Instructor: TBA

PORT 320 – Readings in Portuguese (Prerequisite PORT 202) - This is the 3rd semester upper-intermediate Port. Students can enroll in this course after successfully finishing PORT 202 OR after taking a placement test

Section I (CRN 57219) 3:00 - 04:15 PM TR Instructor: Andréia Lisboa de Sousa

PORT 406 – Brazilian Film

Topic: Brazilian Culture through Cinema (Prerequisite PORT 320)

Section E (CRN 4441) 3:00 - 04:50 PM MW Instructor: Glen Goodman

This course is taught in ENGLISH but still count for the Major and Minor or as a cultural course requirement. No prerequisite.

PORT404 -Luso-Brazilian Culture

Topic: Brazil as Global Power (No prerequisite, taught in English)

Section GG3 (CRN 62078) 11:00 AM – 12h15PM MW Instructor: John Karam

Cheers, abraços,

Andréia Lisboa de Sousa - Program Director (alsousa@illinois.edu)